LAST OF THE RACES

Tavernier Was a Winner in the 2:40 Trot

AFTER A RED HOT CONTEST

George Swift Won the 2:50 Purse in Three Heats and Greenceps Captures the Four-Year-Old Stakes.

The first race of the Horsemen's association at Comstock park yesterday | Hal Pointer Paces a Mile in 2:05 1-2 on afternoon was the 2:40 class trotting, in which there were nine starters, who drew the positions in the following Gilbert, Overland, Duster Wilkes, Sherman Boy, Mira and Tavernier. Three bay stailon by Jay Gould, and Fannie track. Hat Pointer paced in 2:06; K, a bay mure by Masterlode. They got the word without much scoring and the field resolved into a procession with Hellas leading and Chitter, who made a bad break at the start, bringing up the rear. Gen. Cass drew to the front and took the heat, with Helias a close second. Time, 2:25.

The second heat was won easily by Tavernier, who went around in a bunch with Sherman Boy, Gen. Case and Overland. Time, 2.28s.

Helias surprised the field in the third by taking the heat, and Glitter, who had held eighth place in the two previous heats, advanced to third place. Tavernier came in second, Overland fourth, Sherman Boy fifth, Mira exth, Duster Wilkes seventh, Gen. Casseighth, and Harry Gilbert minth.

The fight in the fourth heat was between Gitter and Tavernier. The others were not in it, but straggled along in processional order. Helias had the inside, but soon fell behind. and Glitter took the pole, holding it until the stretch was reached, when Tavernier crowded to the front and won the heat by half a length.

Up to the fourth heat there had been a heat apiece for General Cass, Hellas and Tavernier, then Tavernier took another. When the fifth heat was called Tavernier was plainly the favorite. Harry Gilbert and Mira were drawn. Tavernier led, hotly pushed by Glitter and General Cass. The tieneral man-aged to keep ahead of Tavernier until the stretch was reached, when the latter came down closely followed by Glitter, who also passed the General. Tavecuter won the heat and the race, taking first money; second money went to Helias, third money to General Case and fourth money to Glitter. Following are the summaries:

Knew the Colored Woman. WAYLAND, Sept. 6.—EDITOR HERALD -I read the death of an old colored woman down in Georgia some time ago and I remember the circumstances well. I was wounded at the battle of Crep's farm in July, 1864, on General Sherman's campaign. Not wishing to go to the hospital, my captain told me I could do his cooking, so I went and pressed a horse in the service. I stopped at a large white house to get some water and I found that General Joseph E. Johnston had used it for his headquarters. Going to the well I saw an old colored woman standing in the door of her cabin. I went to where she was and asked her if I could have some apples. The orchard, I think, contained about ten acres. She said she was blind, but could tell me what kind of apples grew on every tree. I got a bag full and I gave her some confederate scrip, of which I had plenty. She told me that she was born on that plantation, but being blind they left her, but she had plenty of bacon and her afterwards until I saw her death at
